

I hope that you will take action to stop an outrageous abuse of power against the public trust that Sinclair Broadcasting is planning by making its stations show an anti-Kerry movie right before the election. This is what happens when large companies are relatively unregulated when it comes to their buying up the public air waves and imposing their point of view on the public. I don't want one company dictating what people see. Please strengthen media ownership rules.